BPL On-the-Go Pop-Up Series

March 10 & 21; April 11 & 29; May 23 & 28

Designated Bookmobile Stops

Have you heard about Bloomington Library's new On-the-Go vehicle? BPL On-the-Go allows library staff to travel to offsite locations, bringing with them library programs and services.

The vehicle will be following the Bookmobile to select stops where you can check out the On-the-Go vehicle while our staff provide fun tech activities and crafts (while supplies last).

The On-the-Go vehicle will travel with the Bookmobile to the following stops:

- Eagle Creek - Tuesday, March 10, 5:30 – 6:45pm
- Viking Brews - Saturdays: March 21, April 11, May 23; 10:15 – 11:30am
- Bohmer - Wednesday, April 29, 5:30 – 6:45pm
- Wingover - Thursday, May 28, 5:30 – 8pm

Questions about these programs can be sent to techprogramming@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

Count the Clovers Scavenger Hunt

March 16 – April 4 • All Bookmobile Stops

Visit any of the library's Bookmobile stops and test your luck as you hunt for four-leaf clovers hidden on the Bookmobile. Once you've located all the four-leaf clovers, see the Bookmobile driver to receive a small completion prize.

Visit bit.ly/bookmobilesched to view the Bookmobile's schedule.

Questions about this program can be sent to circulation@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

Nomad Theatre Presents HERStory

Saturday, March 28 • 9:30am – 12:30pm

Sunday, March 29 • 1:30 – 4:30pm • Throughout the library Women's History Month comes alive during this unique, immersive pop-up event! Local playwrights and actors from Nomad Theatre will perform scenes involving famous women throughout history. Performers will be stationed throughout the library on both floors, and they'll be ready to teach you about these incredible women. Directed by Kathleen Kirk.

The live production portrayals of Claudette Colvin and Tammi Terrell complement the library's Bloomington Reads programming series and its spotlight title The Supremes at Earl's All-You-Can-Eat. Learn more about Bloomington Reads on pages 14 – 15.

Questions about this program can be sent to childrensstaff@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

Hide-n-Seek: Bookmobile Edition

Sunday, April 12 • 2 – 4pm • Secret Location

The Bookmobile is "hiding" somewhere in Bloomington! Your job is to use posted clues to help you find the mobile library at its secret location. Those who successfully locate the Bookmobile and climb aboard will receive a small prize in celebration of National Library Week (April 19-25).

Clues will be posted to the Bookmobile's social media channels in the days leading up to April 12.

Questions about this program can be sent to circulation@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

Meet the Seed Library

April 20 – May 17 • All Bookmobile Stops

The Bookmobile is starting its very own 'Seeds on Wheels' Seed Library! Visit any of the library's Bookmobile stops to learn about this new service and to take home a plant starter kit. (Kits will be available while supplies last).

Visit bit.ly/bookmobilesched to view the Bookmobile's schedule.

Questions about this program can be sent to circulation@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

Pins and Needles: A Fiber Arts Celebration

Saturday, April 25 • 2 – 4pm • Normal Public Library

Whether you're a needlework novice who's thinking about a new hobby or a seasoned crafter who is looking for new techniques, this program will allow you to explore the world of fiber arts with demonstrations of spinning, knitting, crocheting, quilting, cross stitch, embroidery, and more! Experienced artisans and representatives from local craft shops and fiber guilds will answer your questions as you learn about new fiber arts tools and materials.

Additionally, the Fix It Friday Repair Shop will also be in attendance, so bring something from your wardrobe that needs a little attention! (Fix It Friday offers basic sewing, mending, and clothing repair at no cost. Learn more about the Fix-It Friday program at bit.ly/fixitfridayisu.)

Day of the Child/Day of the Book

Sunday, April 26 • 2 – 4pm • Normal Public Library

STANDALONE CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

America 250 Art Exhibition Workshop for Kids

Monday, March 2 • 3 – 5pm • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

Make art and make history - America is turning 250! The McLean County Museum of History, McLean County Arts Center, and other partners invite artists of all ages, backgrounds, and experience levels to participate in A More Perfect Union - A Community Exhibition Commemorating America 250.

In this drop-in workshop, young artists in Grades 3 – 5 will engage in the process of creating a more perfect union through the process of creating original artworks that explore and express big ideas about our shared and individual histories as Americans.

Celebrate Mo Willems!

March 16 – March 22 • Children's Department

During all the library's open hours, celebrate the author Mo Willems with activities in the Children's Department!

Come to the Children's Desk during the celebration to receive free tickets to the upcoming live show of Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus at the Bloomington Center for the Performing Arts. The show will take place at 10am on Friday, April 3. There is a limit of 6 free tickets per person while supplies last.

Spring Break Book Carnival

March 23 – March 27 • Children's Department

While you're enjoying Spring Break, join us at the library and take part in some book-themed games and activities. Then, create a paper chain representing your library visit with each link representing one activity you completed during your visit.

Upcycled Tote Bags

Tuesday, March 24 • 4 – 5pm • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

Children in Grades 2-5 can drop-in, decorate an existing tote bag, and leave with their very own unique and personalized book bag! Children may bring in their own tote bag (preferably denim, canvas, or other cotton fabric) to upcycle, though the library will also provide some bags. All other supplies will be provided.

Family Art Night

Tuesday, March 24 • 6 – 7pm • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

Join us at the library for a relaxing evening of art making and creativity with your family! A variety of art supplies will be available to create your family's masterpiece. This 60-minute drop-in program is intended for children ages 3 – 11 years accompanied by their caregivers and families.

Cardboard Arcade

Wednesday, March 25 • 11am – 1pm

Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

Calling all school-aged creative engineers! You are invited to build your very own arcade game using cardboard and other recycled materials. We'll provide the supplies and some assistance, but most kids will also need help from their grown-up.

Spring Printmaking*

Thursday, March 26 • 10am • Children's Program Room 1

Explore the joy of printmaking in this one-hour, hands-on class with the Illinois Art Station! Participants will experiment with 2 – 3 simple printmaking techniques, including foam sticker printing, dot-a-dot prints, and oil pastel prints. This playful session encourages creativity, exploration, and spring-inspired designs – no prior experience needed.

Beginning March 12, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/printmaking0326. Registration is limited to 20 kids (ages 5 – 11).

Tummy Time Play

Thursday, March 26 • 2 – 3pm • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

Join us for this relaxed, interactive program designed to encourage fine motor skills, gross motor skills, and socialization skills through play for our youngest library patrons! There will be bubbles, music, toys, and information highlighting the importance of early developmental skills.

This drop-in program is intended for children ages 0 – 18 months and their caregivers, but all are welcome to attend. No registration required.

Super-Pooping Worm Spectacular

Friday, March 27 • 10am • Library Patio

Join the Ecology Action Center to learn about worms, and more importantly, worm poop! During this program, attendees will get to hear everything about worms' role on our planet through Polly Owen's picture book Darwin's Super-Pooping Worm Spectacular. Once we have learned all there is to know about worms and their poop, students will get to see these worms at work, learn about how they differ from humans, and maybe even feel them squirm on their hands.

This program is intended for children 5 – 11 years old who are accompanied by their caregivers.

*Registration Required

Sensory Scavenger Hunt

April 1 – 30 • Children's Department

In recognition of Autism Awareness Month, there will be a Sensory Scavenger Hunt set up in the Children's Department!

Marbled Paper-Covered Journals*

Tuesday, April 21 • 4pm • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

Children in Grades 3 – 5 will make a marbled paper-covered journal. Marbling paper is a historic art form that creates unique, decorative paper. Participants will learn how to marble paper and construct a blank journal which they will then take home to keep. All materials will be provided by the library.

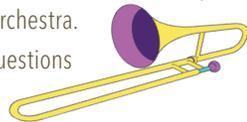

Beginning April 7, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/journal0421. Registration is limited to 15 kids.

Instrument Playground

Saturday, April 25 • 10am – 12pm • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

The Illinois Symphony Orchestra Guild of Bloomington-Normal will present an INSTRUMENT PLAYGROUND at Bloomington Public Library. Children ages 5 – 11 years old are invited to sample various instruments from the brass, woodwind, string, and percussion families of the orchestra.

Members of the Guild will be on hand to answer questions and conduct instrument demonstrations.

Sensory Art Time

Monday, April 27 • 4pm • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

Join us for a fun exploration of different sensory experiences with a variety of art supplies! Process art can be about the immersive and engaging experience of playing with one or two mediums without an end product in mind.

If you'd rather hop from one medium to another, or use them all at once, that's fine too! And for kids who prefer product art, we can help you make your own sensory/fidget toys.

Craftivism for Kids: Earth Day*

Wednesday, April 29 • 5:30pm • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

A combination of crafts and activism, "craftivism" is a way to explore historical and modern examples of arts and crafts being used to convey a message. In this session, kids in Grades 2-5 will learn about environmental justice.

Beginning April 16, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/earthday0429. Registration is limited to 20 kids.

Make a Mother's Day Gift

Tuesday, May 5 • 4 – 5pm • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

Children are invited to come to the Children's Department where they'll be able to make a small gift and card for Mother's Day. All materials will be provided by the library. This drop-in program is best for kids ages 5 – 11 years old with a caregiver (preferably not the person for whom they are making the gift and card).

Sign and Sing Story Time

Wednesday, May 13 • 10am • Children's Program Rooms 1 & 2

Join Communication Junction at Bloomington Public Library for a 30-minute Sign + Sing Story Time. We will be signing, singing, and reading books all about cookies and jammies! This story time is geared for children ages 0 – 5 years.

PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN & TEENS

Slow Looking at 410 Sculpture Park*

Sunday, April 12 • 1pm • Sculpture Park

In observation of Slow Art Day, participants will take a close look at larger-than-life artworks inspired by industrial materials before creating art in response to the work on display.

No later than 1pm, participants are to meet at 410 Sculpture Park (410 South Madison Street, Bloomington) to view work created by local artist Tom Kirk and the crew at Power House Art. This bilingual program (offered in English and Spanish) will conclude at Bloomington Public Library and will require traversing uneven terrain and the use of stairs to access restrooms.

This program is for youth ages 5 to 15 years. An adult must accompany each minor participant. Beginning March 29, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/slowart0412.

Questions about this program can be sent to childrensstaff@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

Beginning March 2, registration for Tuesday's session can be completed online at bit.ly/wickedpart1 and registration for Thursday's session can be completed online at bit.ly/wickedpart2. Be sure to register for both sessions if you plan to attend both days.

Mini 3D-Printed Catapults*

Monday, April 13 • 5pm • Innovation Lab

Calling all teen inventors and aspiring engineers! Join us as we learn to design, 3D print, and build our very own miniature catapults! Along the way, you'll explore the fascinating world of physics, diving into the concepts of potential and kinetic energy to see how they make your catapult work.

Beginning March 30, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/catapult0413. Registration is limited to 10 teens.

Questions about this program can be sent to techprogramming@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

D&D: The Forge of Spells*

Saturday, April 18 • 12:45 – 4:45pm • Conference Room

The long-sought Forge of Spells has finally been discovered by a local mining company after centuries of searching by countless prospectors and adventurers alike. Rumored to hold unimaginable wealth and powerful magic, the Forge is ripe for the taking. The only catch? Your party must survive the ancient traps and clever puzzles left behind by its creators – and confront whatever creatures now call it home.

Players will need a level 3 character sheet without equipment – created either physically with pen and paper, digitally using D&D Beyond, or chosen from the character sheets provided. Writing utensils will also be provided. No peanut products are allowed in this space during the program.

Beginning April 4, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/ddteens0418. Registration is limited to 5 teens.

Questions about this program can be sent to techprogramming@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

Custom Sublimated Tumblers*

Monday, April 20 • 5:30pm • Innovation Lab

Using Canva, registered teens will design a full-color sublimation print which will be pressed onto a tumbler cup.

The library's sublimation printer and sublimation oven will then bring the projects to life!

The program will include a demonstration of applying sublimation onto a tumbler cup. After the program concludes, library staff will sublimate the designs onto the tumblers which the teens will pick up at a later date.

Beginning April 6, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/tumblers0420. Registration is limited to 15 teens.

Questions about this program can be sent to techprogramming@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

VR Fruit Ninja Tournament*

Wednesday, May 27 • 6pm • TeenZone

Registered teens are invited to join us for an epic, action-packed competition in which they'll experience the thrill of Fruit Ninja. Participants will don a VR headset and step into a virtual world where they'll slice flying fruit in exciting, fast-paced rounds. The top scorers will move on to the final showdown where they'll compete for the title of VR Fruit Ninja Champion and have a chance to win awesome prizes!

Beginning May 13, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/fruitninja0527. Registration is limited to 12 teens.

Questions about this program can be sent to techprogramming@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

PROGRAMS FOR TEENS & ADULTS

The Practical Approach to Meditation*

Monday, March 9 • 7pm • Online via Zoom

Meditation is a very simple practice, available to all. Utilizing meditation can reduce stress, increase calmness and clarity, and promote happiness. Learning how to meditate is easy, and the benefits can come quickly.

Join longtime meditator Zelma Pierce Chamberlain, M.Ed., who will share practical steps to learning how to meditate and provide an opportunity for participants to try it on their own. By incorporating meditation into your daily routine, you will see the changes!

Registration is required and can be completed at bit.ly/meditation0309.

Stream It Like You Mean It!*

Wednesday, March 11 • 6pm • Computer Lab & Online

If you're a teen or an adult who wants to start streaming like a pro, plan to join us for an engaging, hands-on introduction to Open Broadcaster Software (OBS), the powerful and free tool used by streamers around the world! In this session, we'll guide you through the basics of OBS, from setting up scenes and sources to adjusting your settings for the best quality stream.

The presentation will break down the software's features step-by-step, making it easy to understand whether you're a complete beginner or just need a refresher. There will be time for questions and practice at the end.

Beginning February 25, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/stream0311.

This program will be offered both in person and live on the BPL YouTube channel at bit.ly/blmlibyoutube. Those tuning in online do not need to register.

Questions about this program can be sent to techprogramming@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

Dating Violence Simulation*

Tuesday, April 7 • 6:30pm • Community Rooms 1 & 2

This interactive simulation places participants in the shoes of a teen navigating an abusive relationship. Through a series of choices, participants experience the challenges of seeking help, staying safe, and coping with peer and adult responses. In this program, teens gain tools to recognize unhealthy dynamics and make safer choices, while adults learn how to respond with understanding, guidance, and effective intervention.

The program concludes with a guided discussion about the impact of dating violence, healthy relationship strategies, and ways to support peers.

Beginning March 23, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/dating0407.

The program will be led by representatives from the YMCA of McLean County's Stepping Stones program and is intended for ages 14+ (due to content).

Teen Financial Literacy: Financial Decisions*

Tuesday, April 14 • 4pm • Community Room 1

During this Financial Literacy Month program, teens in grades 6 – 12 will learn about Financial Decisions from the Illinois State Credit Union.

Making a big decision about what's to come after high school – a decision that can shape the next several decades of your life – is a lot of pressure. Whether you have decided on a path or not, you should plan to join us to learn more about the options available to you and things to consider about managing your money long term.

What You Will Learn:

- Things to consider when making big decisions about college, trade school, or entering the workforce
- Options to pay for higher education
- Managing money after graduation

Teens, young adults, and parents/guardians of teens and young adults are welcome to attend.

Beginning March 30, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/englishfinance. A Spanish version of this program will be offered at on Tuesday, April 21.

Educación Financiera para Adolescentes: Tomando Decisiones Financieras*

Martes, 21 de Abril • 4pm • Community Room 1

Durante este programa del Mes de la Educación Financiera, los adolescentes de los grados 6 a 12 aprenderán sobre decisiones financieras con la ayuda de la Cooperativa de Unión de Créditos del Estado de Illinois.

Tomar decisiones importantes sobre el futuro, decisiones que podrían moldear las próximas décadas de tu vida, puede generar mucha presión. Ya sea que hayas decidido tu camino o no, únete a nosotros para aprender más sobre las opciones disponibles después de la escuela secundaria y las cosas que deberías considerar para gestionar tus finanzas a largo plazo.

Lo que aprenderás:

- Aspectos a considerar al tomar decisiones importantes sobre la universidad, la formación profesional o la incorporación al mercado laboral
- Opciones para financiar la educación superior
- Cómo administrar el dinero después de la graduación

Adolescentes, jóvenes adultos y padres/tutores de adolescentes y jóvenes adultos son bienvenidos a asistir.

A partir del lunes 30 de marzo, la inscripción se puede completar en línea en bit.ly/finanzasespañol. Se ofrecerá una versión en inglés de este programa a las 4pm el martes 14 de abril.

Under the Dome Knit In

Saturday, May 9 • 10am – 1pm • Community Room 1

Calling ALL knitters and crocheters! Grab your needles and hooks, some yarn, a friend or two, and plan to craft for a bit with the popular McLean County Museum of History's crafting group, Under the Dome Knit In!

Knitters and crocheters are welcome to come and create charity items or work on their own projects in the company of like-minded crafters.

This quarter's featured project will be making chemo caps for Carle Cancer Institute of Normal and soap sacks which will be donated to local shelters.

Chemo caps can be knitted or crocheted but must be new, clean, and from a smoke-free environment. Caps should be made of soft yarn – cotton, acrylic, silk, bamboo, fleece, or a blend is best.

Soap sacks can be knitted or crocheted but must be made of cotton yarn. The soap sacks will be donated to local shelters, food pantries, veterans' clinics, and social service agencies. The Museum will provide the soap to include with the sacks.

PROGRAMS FOR ADULTS

Sew a Sachet

Tuesday, March 3 • 5:30 – 7:30pm • Innovation Lab

It's SEW easy to make a lavender sachet to perfume your clothes or linens! After completing some basic hand sewing, attendees will go home with a 3.5-inch square sachet that will make their clothes smell like spring has arrived! The library will provide the partially assembled materials.

This program will take place in the library's Innovation Lab. Registration is not required for this drop-in program; however, supplies are limited and will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

No other sewing projects are available during this drop-in program. This event may end early if supplies are exhausted before 7:30pm.

International Yumz*

Saturday, March 7 • 1:30pm • Community Room 3

Do you have an adventurous palate? Do you want to travel the world without leaving the library?

If you answered "yes" to these questions, plan now to join us for an afternoon of sampling snacks from various countries.

Beginning February 21, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/yumz0307. Registration is limited to 15 adults.

Due to the size of some of the snacks, not everyone will have the opportunity to try them all. Those with food allergies are advised that we will not know the ingredients in every snack provided.

Grown-Up Story Time

Friday, March 13 • 7:30pm • McLean County Arts Center

Bloomington Public Library, Next to Normal, and Normal Public Library are joining forces to bring children's stories to adults! While we may be forced to grow up, we're not forced to grow out of our love for picture books. Join us at the McLean County Arts Center (601 N. East St., Bloomington) for some of our favorites. Doors open at 7pm. Light refreshments will be provided.

Questions about this program can be sent to childrensstaff@bloomingtonlibrary.org.

Beyond the Page with Percival Everett*

Thursday, March 19 • 7pm • Online via Zoom

Percival Everett's most recent novel, James, earned both the Pulitzer Prize for fiction and the National Book Award, and his 2001 novel Erasure inspired the film American Fiction, which received the Academy Award for Best Adapted Screenplay in 2024. Everett's other titles include Dr. No, The Trees, So Much Blue, and I Am Not Sidney Poitier.

Tune in for our conversation with Everett to get a glimpse beyond the page. Brandis Friedman, a writer and anchor for WTTW's Chicago Tonight and Chicago Tonight: Black Voices, will moderate the event.

Registration is required and can be completed online at bit.ly/ILPPercivalEverett. Registration will close at 5pm on March 19. Late registrations will be processed after the live event and will be allowed access to the event recording.

This event is made possible by Illinois Libraries Present (ILP), a statewide collaboration among public libraries offering premier events. ILP is funded in part by a grant awarded by the Illinois State Library, a department of the Office of Secretary of State, using funds provided by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services, under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA).

National Quilt Day Quilt-In*

Saturday, March 21 • 9am – 4pm • Community Room 3

Celebrate National Quilt Month with a one-day quilting retreat! Build community with your fellow quilters, be inspired by your fellow creatives, and enjoy some uninterrupted sewing time free from distractions.

Bring your own sewing machine, quilting project, necessary tools, and a brown bag lunch. An ironing station and a cutting station will be available for your use. No other equipment will be provided.

Registration is required and can be completed online at bit.ly/quilt0321.

Watercolor Cherry Blossoms Painting*

Sunday, March 22 • 2pm • Community Room 3

In this class, attendees will paint a spring-themed cherry blossoms painting using watercolor paints. No prior experience with watercolor is needed. All materials will be provided.

Beginning March 9, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/watercolor0322. Registration is limited to 15 adults.

Colon Cancer Awareness

Monday, March 30 • 6pm • Community Room 3

The second leading cause of cancer-related deaths today is colon cancer, and March is Colon Cancer Awareness Month. Join this presentation to learn more about the current statistics, signs, and symptoms of colon cancer. Attendees will also learn which organizations in our community offer support and resources for colon cancer patients. A Q & A session will follow the presentation.

Our presenter will be Nina Gorden, a representative of the Colon Cancer Alliance and a colon cancer survivor.

Disability Insurance Workshop*

Saturday, April 11 • 1pm • Community Room 3

At this free workshop presented by Chestnut Health Systems, participants will learn how to navigate the application processes for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI). Attendees will learn the differences between these two programs, what qualifies as a disability, and learn tips that may increase the likelihood of application approval.

A free disability starter kit will be provided to each attendee. This program is intended for adults who are interested in applying for SSI/SSDI for themselves or an adult family member.

Registration is required and can be completed online at bit.ly/disabilityins0411.

Estate Planning & Wills*

Tuesday, April 14 • 1:30pm • Community Rooms 2 & 3

This educational class explains how wills, trusts, and powers of attorney function, and the role they can play in helping protect your wishes and your loved ones. The session will also highlight five important concepts that often impact financial life in retirement, with an overview of common risks and general strategies to consider when planning. No specific products or services will be discussed. Our presenters will be Tyler Wrezinski and Kerri Elson of the Institute for Financial Education.

Registration is required and can be completed online at bit.ly/estate0414.

Cristina Henríquez: Voice, Culture, and Human Connection*

Thursday, April 16 • 7pm • Online via Zoom

Join critically acclaimed, bestselling author, Cristina Henríquez, for a compelling conversation about her work. Henríquez's newest book, The Great Divide, is a moving exploration of the people who lived, loved, and labored during the construction of the Panama Canal. Named a New York Times Editors' Choice selection and TIME Magazine "100 Must-Read Books of 2024," The Great Divide explores history and adversity in a place that's special to her – her father's homeland of Panama.

Carmen Álvarez will join Henríquez as moderator. Her work has appeared in Glamour, Elle, and Vogue.

Registration is required and can be completed online at bit.ly/ILPCristinaHenriquez. Registration will close at 5pm on April 16. Late registrations will be processed after the live event and will be allowed access to the event recording.

This event is made possible by Illinois Libraries Present (ILP), a statewide collaboration among public libraries offering premier events. ILP is funded in part by a grant awarded by the Illinois State Library, a department of the Office of Secretary of State, using funds provided by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services, under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA).

Adult Craftivism*

Tuesday, April 28 • 6pm • Community Room 3

Join us for a belated celebration of Earth Day as we sort seeds for the Bookmobile's new seed library, "Seeds on Wheels." Participants will also take home some seeds for their own gardens. This program is a fun and meaningful, yet simple, way to give back to the community.

Beginning April 14, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/adulcraft0428. Registration is limited to 10 adults.

Introduction to 3D Printing*

Monday, May 11 • 6pm • Computer Lab

As 3D printers become more prevalent and mainstream, many people are learning how to use them. Some crucial steps to the 3D-printing process include learning how to create 3D models, sourcing quality 3D-print files, and preparing files for printing. In this program, adults will be introduced to Tinkercad, an entry-level 3D-modeling software which can be used to create custom designs. The basics of the software will be covered, and patrons will be led through a custom project that will be 3D printed for them to be picked up at a later date.

At the end of the program, patrons will be taken into the library's Innovation Lab to view a printing demonstration.

Beginning April 27, registration can be completed online at bit.ly/3Dadults. Registration is limited to 12 adults.

Babel On with R.F. Kuang*

Tuesday, May 19 • 7pm • Online via Zoom

R.F. Kuang's genre-bending fiction broaches ordinarily serious topics from a satirical and fantastical perspective. Academic yet approachable, Kuang's work combines history, magic, and classical literary tradition to render powerful critiques of academia, the publishing industry, and even contemporary popular culture. Her most recent novel, Katabasis, follows two graduate students as they descend into hell after the death of their professor.

Kelly Jensen, a writer who has compiled such anthologies as Here We Are: Feminism for the Real World and (Don't) Call Me Crazy, will be joining Kuang in conversation.

Registration is required and can be completed online at bit.ly/ILPKuang. Registration will close at 5pm on May 19. Late registrations will be processed after the live event and will be allowed access to the event recording.

This event is made possible by Illinois Libraries Present (ILP), a statewide collaboration among public libraries offering premier events. ILP is funded in part by a grant awarded by the Illinois State Library, a department of the Office of Secretary of State, using funds provided by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services, under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA).

Summer Reading

MAY 26 - JULY 31

Bloomington Reads 2026

The Supremes at Earl's All-You-Can-Eat by Edward Kelsey Moore has been chosen as the spotlight title for the 2026 Bloomington Reads Programming Series. During Bloomington Reads, the library provides many copies of the featured title in multiple formats. Area residents are encouraged to read the title, discuss it with their peers, and attend corresponding programs which will focus on themes found in the book.

Related programs will be offered, and the series will culminate with an April 23 author presentation at the library. Visit bit.ly/blmreads2026 or scan the QR code to learn more about this year's Bloomington Reads programming series.

Set in Plainview, Indiana, The Supremes at Earl's All-You-Can-Eat revolves around three lifelong friends — Odette, Clarice, and Barbara Jean — who've been affectionately dubbed "The Supremes" since their high school days in the 1960s. The novel captures the ladies' enduring friendship as they navigate life's challenges: Clarice grapples with her husband's infidelities, Barbara Jean confronts the aftermath of a youthful love affair, and Odette faces a daunting health crisis.

Musical Bingo: Bloomington Reads Edition*

Sunday, March 8 • 2pm • Community Room 3

Using music inspired by the book The Supremes at Earl's All-You-Can-Eat by Edward Kelsey Moore, we'll play a rousing game of Musical Bingo!

This isn't your usual game of Bingo. Musical Bingo is a fun game where players listen to short snippets of songs and mark off the corresponding titles on their Bingo cards, hoping to be the first to get a winning pattern and shout, "BINGO!"

All ages are welcome. Registration is required and can be completed at bit.ly/bingo0308. Registration is limited to 30 participants.

Bloomington Reads: Book to Movie

Sunday, March 15 • 2 – 4:30pm • Community Rooms 2 & 3

Our Bloomington Reads spotlight title comes to the big screen!

Adults are invited to attend a matinee showing of a movie based on our Bloomington Reads spotlight title. This showing complements the reading of the book. Popcorn and water will be available to complete the movie-going experience! (PG-13, 2 hours and 4 minutes runtime)

Bloomington Reads: Mini-Book Keychain Craft

Wednesday, April 8 • 6 – 8pm • Community Room 1
Sunday, April 19 • 1 – 2pm • Community Rooms 2 & 3

Celebrate Bloomington Reads with this hands-on, commemorative craft! Teens & adults will create a miniature book inspired by this year's spotlight title, The Supremes at Earl's All-You-Can-Eat by Edward Kelsey Moore.

Participants will then add their mini book to a keychain designed to be a keepsake of the community's shared reading experience.

Registration is not required for this drop-in program; however, supplies are limited and will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Bloomington Reads: Book Discussion

Thursday, April 9 • 7pm • Conference Room & Online*
Wednesday, April 15 • 12pm • Community Rooms 2 & 3
Sunday, April 19 • 2pm • Community Rooms 2 & 3

Adults are invited to join us to discuss The Supremes at Earl's All-You-Can-Eat by Edward Kelsey Moore, the 2026 Bloomington Reads spotlight title.

Participants of the April 9* book discussion have the option to meet either in person or online via Zoom.

Registration for the April 9 session is required and can be completed online at bit.ly/blmreads0409.

Attendees of the April 15 and April 19 sessions do not need to register.

Bloomington Reads: A Classical Music Tribute

Thursday, April 16 • 7pm • Community Rooms 2 & 3

Music plays an important role in the life of Clarice, one of the Supremes, in The Supremes at Earl's All-You-Can-Eat.

This tribute to Clarice's love of music, and Edward Kelsey Moore's background as a professional cellist will feature a duo of a local cellist and pianist performing a variety of songs inspired by the book. This musical tribute is intended for adults.

Bloomington Reads: An Evening with Edward Kelsey Moore

Thursday, April 23 • 6 – 8:30pm
Community Rooms 1 – 3 & Online

Our 2026 Bloomington Reads program series concludes with an evening with Edward Kelsey Moore, author of The Supremes at Earl's All-You-Can Eat. Adults are invited to attend his presentation about the program's spotlight title. The presentation will be followed by a Q & A session and a book signing. Attendees may purchase a book at the event for signing or purchase the title online in advance through Bobzbay at bit.ly/bobzbayonline.

This program will be offered both in person and live on the BPL YouTube channel at bit.ly/blmlibyoutube. Please note that at-home viewers will not be able to participate in the Q & A session beyond observing.

Bloomington Reads Companion Programs:

These programs complement the library's Bloomington Reads programming series and its spotlight title The Supremes at Earl's All-You-Can-Eat.
